

Information Regarding Nominees for the MCA Board of Directors

The following provides some brief information about the nominees to the MCA Board of Directors that are not currently serving on the Board:

Diane D'Arcy: Diane has been the Chairman of the Planning and Zoning Committee of MCA and has served as a member of the Board of Directors of the McLean Community Foundation. She lives in Westmoreland Square.

Steven Donovan: Steve represents the Evermay Community Association. He is a Program Manager at CACI and a retired Army Lieutenant Colonel. As a resident of Fairfax County for 40+ years with two adult children, Steve and his wife Susan have a passion for the County's parks and recreation facilities as well as the local schools.

Richard Fry: Richard represents the McLean Hamlet Community Association. Richard is interested in how the residential and neighborhood interests interact with the needs of the business community.

Rajni Goel: Rajni represents the Reserves Homeowners Association. Rajni has served on MCA's Education and Youth Committee and a variety of Fairfax County groups and wishes to now better serve McLean by service on the Board.

John W. Herold: John Represents the West Lewinsville Heights Citizens Association. John, a lawyer, has been President of the McLean Swimming and Tennis Association and served on the Fairfax County Citizens Advisory Council, Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court.

Jennifer Jones: Jennifer represents the Downscrest Citizens Association and is active in youth sports. As a commercial real estate lawyer, Jennifer is interested in keeping McLean vibrant and safe with improvements to our overstressed infrastructure while managing growth and development.

James P. Lawless: James represents the Kings Manor Association. James is a member of the McLean Historical Society and the Board of the Kings Manor Association. James has a deep interest in the optimum evolution of McLean as a community amidst changing development.

Subhi Medhi: Subhi is currently a member of the MCA Budget and Taxation Committee. He is retired with two decades of public service and wishes to give back to the community with service on the Board.

Sharon Gamble: Sharon is the President of the Salona Village Association and serves on the MCA Planning and Zoning Committee and the Transportation Committee. She brings experience in business and technical analysis to help advance the interests of McLean citizens and to improve our quality of life and sense of community.